

Proclamation

by Governor Jim Justice

- Whereas, the catastrophic injury or death of a parent or guardian can have a devastating emotional and financial impact on any family; and
- Whereas, when the injury or death resulted from a work-related accident, workers' compensation benefits are often insufficient to allow the children of the injured or deceased worker to pursue their educational goals; and
- Whereas, Kids' Chance of West Virginia was incorporated in 1998 as a nonprofit organization which provides educational scholarships to young West Virginians that have a parent who has suffered a serious, catastrophic, or fatal workplace injury or illness; and
- Whereas, Kids' Chance of West Virginia believes that access to higher education ensures that our state's young people have the knowledge and skills to be successful in the workplace, provide for their families, and make a difference in their communities; and
- Whereas, Kids' Chance of West Virginia has provided more than $280,000 in scholarships since its inception in 1998, helping West Virginia students attend vocational and trade programs, state colleges and universities, and out-of-state colleges and universities; and
- Whereas, future West Virginia students will be in need of financial assistance; and
- Whereas, November 7-11, 2022, has been designated Kids' Chance Awareness Week in order to increase the visibility of Kids' Chance organizations throughout the United States and to inform others about Kids' Chance scholarship opportunities.

Now, Therefore, Be it Resolved that I, Jim Justice, Governor of the Great State of West Virginia, do hereby proclaim November 7-11, 2022 as:
