

Proclamation

by Governor Jim Justice

Whereas, the week of November 14-18, 2022, has been elected Geography Awareness Week; and

Whereas, the world is increasingly interconnected and interdependent, but too many students lack understanding of the world's geography within and beyond our country's borders; and

Whereas, Geography Awareness Week promotes geography education in the nation's schools and communities, which is an essential part of a 21st century geo-education, and has been a congressionally mandated week since 1987; and

Whereas, teachers, students and communities across West Virginia will gain further understanding about how our world is comprised of interconnected human and natural systems, with special emphasis this year on the theme of the power of maps and spatial thinking during Geography Awareness Week and throughout the school year.

Now, Therefore, Be it Resolved that I, Jim Justice, Governor of the Great State of West Virginia, do hereby proclaim November 14-18, 2022 as:

Geography Awareness Week

in the Mountain State and encourage all citizens to join me in this observance.

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of West Virginia to be affixed.

Done at the Capitol, City of Charleston, State of West Virginia, this the Fourteenth day of November, in the year of our Lord, Two Thousand Twenty-Two, and in the One Hundred Sixtieth year of the State.

Jim Justice
Governor

By the Governor:

Mac Warner
Secretary of State
