

Proclamation

by Governor Jim Justice

- Whereas, West Virginia has one of the highest rates of homeownership in the nation; and
- Whereas, homeownership has long been considered a component of realizing the American dream of stability and financial security; and
- Whereas, when raising a family, homeownership can help establish security and a feeling of community, providing a strong foundation for future generations; and
- Whereas, West Virginia acknowledges there have been barriers that prevent opportunities for homeownership and has committed to overcoming obstacles to make homeownership accessible to all; and
- Whereas, through partnerships at the state and local level, West Virginia is working to provide resources, education, and support to individuals aspiring to become homeowners; and
- Whereas, all West Virginians deserve to live with security, dignity, and hope in a place they call home.

Now, Therefore, Be it Resolved that I, Jim Justice, Governor of the Great State of West Virginia, do hereby proclaim June 2023 as:

West Virginia Homeownership Month

in the Mountain State, I call upon the people of West Virginia to observe this month with appropriate programs.

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of West Virginia to be affixed.

Done at the Capitol, City of Charleston, State of West Virginia, this the Twelfth day of June, in the year of our Lord, Two Thousand Twenty-Three, and in the One Hundred Sixtieth year of the State.

Jim Justice
Governor

By the Governor:

Mac Warner
Secretary of State
