

Proclamation

by Governor Jim Justice

Whereas, National Engineers Week is an annual event to increase public awareness and appreciation of engineers and their work; and

Whereas, engineers use scientific and technical knowledge and skills in creative and innovative ways to improve our quality of life; and

Whereas, Engineers face the major technological challenges of our time – from rebuilding towns devastated by natural disaster, cleaning up the environment, and assuring safe, clean, and efficient sources of energy, to designing information systems that will speed our country into the future; and

Whereas, engineers are encouraging our young math and science students to realize the practical power of their knowledge; and

Whereas, We will look more than ever to engineers and their knowledge and skills to meet the challenges of the twenty-first century.

Now, Therefore, Be it Resolved that I, Jim Justice, Governor of the Great State of West Virginia, do hereby proclaim February 18-24, 2024 as:

National Engineers Week

in the Mountain State and encourage all citizens to join me in this observance.

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of West Virginia to be affixed.

Done at the Capitol, City of Charleston, State of West Virginia, this the Sixth day of February, in the year of our Lord, Two Thousand Twenty-Four, and in the One Hundred Sixty-First year of the State.

Jim Justice
Governor
