

Proclamation

by Governor Jim Justice

- Whereas, the young people of West Virginia are tomorrow's leaders; and
- Whereas, professional youth development services help guide many young people in their journey to realizing and achieving their full potential; and
- Whereas, Boys & Girls Clubs instill young people with the self-confidence to believe they can succeed in anything they put their minds to and stand at the forefront of efforts in the areas of child safety, academia, fair play, healthy lifestyles and character; and
- Whereas, nearly 9,000 young people in West Virginia are served annually by the Boys & Girls Club organizations in our state, which are part of a nationwide movement that annually serves over two million children and teens; and
- Whereas, Boys & Girls Clubs help ensure our young people have a safe, supportive place to spend time and participate in high quality youth development programming.

Now, Therefore, Be it Resolved that I, Jim Justice, Governor of the Great State of West Virginia, do hereby proclaim June 25-July 1, 2022 as:

National Boys & Girls Club Week in the Mountain State and encourage all citizens to join me in this observance.

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of West Virginia to be affixed.

Done at the Capitol, City of Charleston, State of West Virginia, this the Twenty-Fifth day of May, in the year of our Lord, Two Thousand Twenty-Two, and in the One Hundred Fifty-Ninth year of the State.

Jim Justice
Governor
