

Proclamation

by Governor Jim Justice

- Whereas, in 2023, an estimated 64,050 will be diagnosed with pancreatic cancer in the United States, which equates to 175 people every single day; and
- Whereas, pancreatic cancer is one of the deadliest cancers and is currently the third leading cause of cancer death in the United States, and is predicted to become the second leading cause by the year 2030; and
- Whereas, when symptoms of pancreatic cancer present themselves, it is generally in later stages, and 73 percent of pancreatic cancer patients die within the first year of their diagnosis, while 88 percent of pancreatic cancer patients die within the first five years; and
- Whereas, approximately 310 deaths due to pancreatic cancer will occur in West Virginia in 2023; and
- Whereas, pancreatic cancer is the seventh most common cause of cancer-related death across the world; and
- Whereas, the overall cancer incidence and cancer death rates are declining, the incidence of pancreatic cancer and death rate for pancreatic cancer patients has increased, and is projected to increase by 55 percent between now and 2030; and
- Whereas, the good health and well-being of the residents of the Great State of West Virginia are enhanced as a direct result of increased awareness about the symptoms of the risk factors of pancreatic cancer, and research into early detection, causes, and effective treatments.

Now, Therefore, Be it Resolved that I, Jim Justice, Governor of the Great State of West Virginia, do hereby proclaim November 2023 as:

Pancreatic Cancer Awareness Month

in the Mountain State and encourage all citizens to join me in observance.

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of West Virginia to be affixed.

Done at the Capitol, City of Charleston, State of West Virginia, this the Twenty-Fourth day of October, in the year of our Lord, Two Thousand Twenty-Three, and in the One Hundred Sixty-First year of the State.

Jim Justice
Governor
