

Proclamation

by Governor Jim Justice

- Whereas, for over 60 years, surgical technology has grown to meet the ever-increasing demand for well-educated, highly-skilled and versatile surgical technologists; and
- Whereas, surgical technologists are entrusted with the lives and well-being of patients and provide a critical service during surgical procedures; and
- Whereas, over 90,000 surgical technologists nationwide are an integral part of the surgical team committed to providing the highest quality of surgical care to patients; and
- Whereas, surgical technologists are responsible for the application of sterile and aseptic technique in the operating room, ensuring that equipment functions properly and facilitating safe and effective conduct during invasive surgical procedures; and
- Whereas, surgical technologists strive to prevent life-threatening surgical site infections and maximize patient safety; and
- Whereas, Certified Surgical Technologists graduate from an accredited program and receive certification conferred by the National Board of Surgical Technology and Surgical Assisting based upon passage of the national examination; and
- Whereas, the surgical technologist's motto "Aeger Primo, the patient first" reflects total commitment to patient safety and advocacy,

Now, Therefore, Be it Resolved that I, Jim Justice, Governor of the Great State of West Virginia, do hereby proclaim September 17-23, 2023 as:

Surgical Technologists Week

in the Mountain State and encourage all citizens to join me in acknowledging the important role of surgical technologists in the care and recovery of their patients. We honor these men and women whose diligence and professionalism keep the residents of our great State of West Virginia safe and healthy.

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of West Virginia to be affixed.

Done at the Capitol, City of Charleston, State of West Virginia, this the Seventh day of August, in the year of our Lord, Two Thousand Twenty-Three, and in the One Hundred Sixty-First year of the State.

Jim Justice
Governor
