

Proclamation

by Governor Jim Justice

- Whereas, Emergency Medical Services are a vital public service; and
- Whereas, the members of the West Virginia Emergency Medical Services are ready to provide lifesaving care to those in need 24 hours a day, seven days a week; and
- Whereas, access to quality emergency care dramatically improves the survival and recovery rate of those who experience sudden illness or injury; and
- Whereas, Emergency Medical Services have grown to fill a gap by providing important, out of hospital care, including preventative medicine, and follow-up care; and
- Whereas, the members of Emergency Medical Services teams, engage in thousands of hours of specialized training and continuing education to enhance their lifesaving skills; and
- Whereas, it is appropriate to recognize the value and the accomplishments of Emergency Medical Services providers by designating Emergency Medical Services Week.

Now, Therefore, Be it Resolved that I, Jim Justice, Governor of the Great State of West Virginia, in recognition of this event, do hereby proclaim May 19-25, 2024 as:

Emergency Medical Services Week in the Mountain State and encourage all citizens to join me in observance.

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of West Virginia to be affixed.

Done at the Capitol, City of Charleston, State of West Virginia, this the Nineteenth day of May, in the year of our Lord, Two Thousand Twenty-Four, and in the One Hundred Sixty-First year of the State.

Jim Justice
Governor
