

Proclamation

by Governor Jim Justice

- Whereas, the West Virginia Department of Arts, Culture and History, the West Virginia Arts Office and the West Virginia Commission on the Arts support programs, organizations, and individual artists in all 55 counties; and
- Whereas, the arts are the embodiment of all things beautiful and entertaining in the world -- the enduring record of human achievement; and
- Whereas, the arts enhance every aspect of life in West Virginia—growing our creative economy, enriching our civic life, enhancing tourism, and exerting a profound positive influence on the education of our children; and
- Whereas, support for the arts advances, fosters and promotes the traditional and contemporary creativity of our residents through music, theatre, literature, dance and fine arts; and
- Whereas, arts education research shows that the arts help to foster discipline, creativity, imagination, self-expression, and problem solving skills while also helping to develop a heightened appreciation of beauty and cross-cultural understanding; and
- Whereas, the arts play a unique and intrinsically valuable role in the lives of our families, our communities, and our state.

Now, Therefore, Be it Resolved that I, Jim Justice, Governor of the Great State of West Virginia, do hereby proclaim February 27, 2020 as:

West Virginia Arts Day

and call upon all citizens to celebrate and promote the arts and culture in the Mountain State.

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of West Virginia to be affixed.

Done at the Capitol, City of Charleston, State of West Virginia, this the Sixth day of February, in the year of our Lord, Two Thousand Twenty, and in the One Hundred Fifty-Seventh year of the State.

Jim Justice
Governor
