

STATE OF WEST VIRGINIA
EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT

At Charleston

A PROCLAMATION

By the Governor

WHEREAS, Juneteenth, also known as Freedom Day or Emancipation Day, is celebrated each year on June 19 in the United States to commemorate the end of slavery; and

WHEREAS, President Abraham Lincoln issued the Emancipation Proclamation on New Year's Day in 1863, which ordered the freeing of all slaves in states that were rebelling against Union forces; and

WHEREAS, the Emancipation Proclamation had little effect in Texas, where there were few Union troops to enforce the order; and

WHEREAS, the message of freedom finally reached African Americans in Texas on June 19, 1865, when Union General Gordon Granger, backed by nearly 2,000 troops, arrived in the city of Galveston and made the announcement; and

WHEREAS, West Virginia recognizes Juneteenth as the oldest known celebration commemorating the end of slavery; and

WHEREAS, on June 17, 2021, President Biden signed the Juneteenth National Independence Day Act, which established Juneteenth as an official federal holiday; and

WHEREAS, West Virginia Code § 2-2-1 and West Virginia Code of State Regulations § 143-1-14 vests the Governor with the authority to proclaim and treat additional days as official holidays or days of special observance, or days for the general cessation of business; and

WHEREAS, in acknowledgement of the historical significance of Juneteenth, and the fact it is recognized as an official federal holiday, it is fitting and proper that the public employees of this State be permitted to generally cease business on the Friday prior to Juneteenth, being Friday, June 17, 2022, to spend an extended and enjoyable holiday weekend with their loved ones.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, JIM JUSTICE, pursuant to the foregoing and by virtue of the authority vested in me as the Governor of the State of West Virginia, do hereby PROCLAIM and ORDER that Friday, June 17, 2022, shall be treated as if it were an official holiday, and the public employees of this State may be excused from their work duties on that day without charge against accrued annual leave; and do further

PROCLAIM that this ORDER shall not affect private businesses, local governments, and other entities and individuals not employed by the State of West Virginia; nor shall it affect the work requirements of those public employees who may be called upon to safeguard the health, safety, and welfare of West Virginia's citizenry and compensated in accordance with the legislative rules established by the West Virginia Division of Personnel; however, in accordance with West Virginia Code § 2-2-1(c), county commissions may treat Friday, June 17, 2022, as if it were a legal holiday, and the courts may do the same.
