

STATE OF WEST VIRGINIA
EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT

At Charleston

A PROCLAMATION

By the Governor

WHEREAS, beginning on the June 13, 2022, a severe thunderstorm with associated high winds occurred which caused flooding, downed trees, power outages, and road blockages in certain counties, including Ohio County; and

WHEREAS, the effects of the storm pose a severe and continuing threat to the health, safety, welfare and property of the citizens of West Virginia; and

WHEREAS, in accordance with my authority as Governor, I have declared a State of Emergency for Ohio County, on June 15, 2022.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, JIM JUSTICE, by virtue of the authority vested in me as the Governor of the State of West Virginia, and in view of the foregoing, do hereby FIND AND DECLARE that a State of Emergency exists and continues in Ohio County, said State of Emergency to remain in effect for thirty days unless terminated by subsequent Proclamation. In response to this State of Emergency, I have INVOKED the emergency powers set forth in West Virginia Code §15-15-6; UTILIZED the Emergency Operations Plan, as necessary; ORDERED appropriate personnel and resources, as may be deemed necessary, to mobilize and respond to the emergency; and DELEGATED certain administrative powers to the Director of the West Virginia Emergency Management Division, as necessary, to facilitate the provision of essential emergency services.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of West Virginia to be affixed.

By the State

DONE at the Capitol in the City of Charleston, State of West Virginia, this 15th Day of June, in the year of our Lord, Two Thousand Twenty-Two, in the One Hundred Fifty-Ninth Year of the State.
