

Proclamation

by Governor Jim Justice

- Whereas, 930 WRVC-AM embarked on its broadcast journey on October 16, 1923, making it West Virginia's oldest continuously licensed AM radio station, tracing its roots back to Pomeroy, Ohio, before establishing its enduring home in Huntington in March 1927; and
- Whereas, for a century, 930 WRVC-AM has been a steadfast companion to the Tri-State community, delivering news, music, and local information that has become an integral part of our daily lives; and
- Whereas, now under the ownership of Kindred Communications, has consistently showcased its unwavering commitment to delivering excellence, firmly establishing itself as a reliable source of information, sports coverage, and entertainment within the region; and
- Whereas, 930 WRVC-AM expresses its sincere gratitude to its loyal listeners and supporters, acknowledging that their steadfast dedication has played a pivotal role in the station's ongoing success; and
- Whereas, 930 WRVC-AM remains committed to providing exceptional programming that resonates with its audience, nurturing a profound sense of community spirit and unity; and
- Whereas, on this historic centennial day, we celebrate not only the station's past achievements but also its promising future, confident that 930 WRVC-AM will continue to be a vital part of our community for years to come; and
- Whereas, the City of Huntington has stood as the station's home throughout its remarkable journey, and the Great State of West Virginia joins in the celebration of this iconic milestone; and
- Whereas, we extend our heartfelt gratitude to 930 WRVC-AM's loyal listeners and supporters, recognizing that their unwavering loyalty has been instrumental in the station's enduring success; and
- Whereas, on October 16, 2023, the Great State of West Virginia proudly proclaims it as 930 WRVC-AM Centennial Day, celebrating a century of broadcasting excellence, community engagement, and unwavering dedication to our region.

Now, Therefore, Be it Resolved that I, Jim Justice, Governor of the Great State of West Virginia, do hereby proclaim October 16, 2023 as:

930 WRVC-AM Centennial Day

in the Mountain State and encourage all citizens to join me in observance.

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of West Virginia to be affixed.

Done at the Capitol, City of Charleston, State of West Virginia, this the Tenth day of October, in the year of our Lord, Two Thousand Twenty-Three, and in the One Hundred Sixty-First year of the State.

Jim Justice
Governor

By the Governor:

Mac Warner
Secretary of State