

Proclamation

by Governor Jim Justice

Whereas, National Engineers Week is an annual event to increase public awareness and appreciation of engineers and their work; and

Whereas, engineers use scientific and technical knowledge and skills in creative and innovative ways to improve our quality of life; and

Whereas, engineers provide an essential service as they face major challenges to constrict or reconstruct infrastructure in our state; and

Whereas, engineers offer a unique opportunity to cultivate interest in math, science, and engineering among our nation's youth, the workforce of our future; and

Whereas, we honor professional engineers and the exceptional roles they play in the development of the state of West Virginia.

Now, Therefore, Be it Resolved that I, Jim Justice, Governor of the Great State of West Virginia, do hereby proclaim February 19-25, 2023 as:

National Engineers Week

in the Mountain State and encourage all citizens to join me in this observance.

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of West Virginia to be affixed.

Done at the Capitol, City of Charleston, State of West Virginia, this the Third day of February, in the year of our Lord, Two Thousand Twenty-Three, and in the One Hundred Sixtieth year of the State.

Jim Justice
Governor
