by Governor Jim Justice

Whereas, Jewish American Month is an opportunity to celebrate Jewish Americans and encourage all to learn more about Jewish heritage in the United States; and

Whereas, Jewish American Heritage Month originated in 1980 when Congress passed a resolution which authorized and requested the President to issue a proclamation designating April 21-28, 1980 as Jewish Heritage Week, and since 2007, the White House has issued a proclamation for Jewish American Heritage Month; and

Whereas, the American Jewish community has grown to over six million, representing approximately 2% of the American population today; and

Whereas, Jewish Americans past and present serve in government and the military, win Nobel prizes, head universities and corporations, advance medicine, create enduring works of visual and performance art, write great American novels, and so much more; and

Whereas, West Virginia remains committed to supporting its Jewish American population and to condemning all forms of religious discrimination; and

Whereas, the month of May is a time for West Virginians to learn more about the heritage and accomplishments of Jewish Americans through educational programming, activities, and ceremonies.

Now, Therefore, Be it Resolved that I, Jim Justice, Governor of the Great State of West Virginia, do hereby proclaim May 2024 as:
